

A message from Dr. Rasha Kelej, CEO of Merck Foundation

"I'd like to encourage all media representative across Africa & Asia to apply for "Stay at Home" Media Recognition Awards to mark the "World Health Day" together. We have four categories, English, French, Portuguese and Arabic Speaking Courtiers. The Media Recognition Award will encourage media to sensitize our communities. on how to keep safe and stay healthy physically and mentally.

Raising awareness about coronavirus in our communities will contribute to supporting health workers who are at the forefront of COVID-19 response - providing high quality, respectful treatment and care.

It will also enhance their great efforts in leading community dialogue to address fear and concerns. Our heart and thoughts are with them"

Merck Foundation

"I would like to encourage all Media Representatives across Africa & Asia to apply for "Stay at Home" Media Recognition Awards to mark the 'World Health Day' together. We have four categories, English, French, Portuguese and Arabic Speaking countries. This Media Recognition Award will encourage media to sensitize our communities. Raising awareness about Coronavirus in our communities will contribute to supporting Health workers who are at the forefront of COVID-19 response - providing high quality, respectful treatment and care. It will also enhance their great efforts in leading community dialogue to address fear and concerns. Our hearts and thoughts are with them"

Dr. Rasha Kelej
CEO of Merck Foundation
President of Merck More Than A Mother